

I know of no restorative of heart, body, and soul more effective against hopelessness than the restoration of the Earth. – Barry Lopez

Image: Potash Landscape by Michael Collier.

Use, Misuse and Restoration on the Colorado Plateau

TOM BEAN • MICHAEL COLLIER • ED DUNN

FEB 7 – MAY 3, 2020

Exhibit Opening & Artists' Reception – February 7 • 6-8:30 pm

Talks and slide presentations by Tom Bean, Michael Collier, and Ed Dunn (7pm). Music by Bill Burke and Tony Norris.

First Friday ArtWalk & Community Discussion – March 6 • 6-8:30 pm

"Managing Our Rangelands" (7pm) featuring Billy Cordasco, Manager, the Babbitt Ranches; Norm Lowe, President, Diablo Trust; Mike Macauley; owner, the Perrin Ranch and Board Member, Natural Resource Conversation District; Cerissa Hoglander, Land Conservation Program Manager, Grand Canyon Trust. Music by Grand Canyon artist, Paul Karlsberger.

First Friday ArtWalk & Community Discussion – April 3 • 6-8:30 pm

"Preserving the Land" (7pm) Grand Canyon Centennial Protection Act – Amber Reimondo, Energy Program Director, Grand Canyon Trust on the Grand Canyon Centennial Protection Act, plus presentations on the Native American perspective by Tommy Rock, PhD. Consultant, Inclusive Community, Monument Valley. Music by Mystic Harvest: Kate Watters and Mike Knapp.

First Friday ArtWalk & Community Discussion – May 1 • 6-8:30 pm

"Maintaining Our Forests" (7pm). Dr. Wally Covington, Executive Director and Regents' Professor Ecological Restoration Institute, NAU; Jeremy Kruger, Director, Four Forests Restoration Initiative, USDA; Art Babbott, Coconino County Supervisor. Music by Santa Fe virtuoso, Sid Hausman.

423 N. Beaver St. • Flagstaff AZ 86001 • 928.774.2911

Hours: Tues – Fri, 9 am – 12 pm, 1 – 4 pm • Sun, 8 am – 12:30 pm

Programs made possible through support by

423 N. Beaver St. • Flagstaff AZ 86001
928.774.2911 • www.epiphanyaz.org